Rushell Clayton

Athlete - UWI Mona

CW 400m Hurdles

Rushell Clayton of UWI Mona is no stranger to The Penn Relays. She competed here in high school and this is the 4th year she competed here as a collegiate athlete. This is an important meet for Clayton as she tries to make an attempt to qualify for the World University Games held this summer in South Korea. "This is just one of the preparation meets to get on the team because we don't have actual trials... That was my aim to try to qualify for the team." Clayton hopes that winning The Penn Relays and competing in the World University Games will prepare her to achieve her future goals. She says, "I'm just working because I want to be an Olympian, I want to be a World Champion. It's one of my biggest dreams I'm working for." Clayton was not phased by the cold and windy conditions Philadelphia had to offer, "It's just part of what it takes to be a champion."

Brooklynn Broadwater

Athlete - Springside
 Brooklynn Broadwater of Springside High School in Philadelphia wins the HSG 400m Hurdles
 "I was very confident... especially with the hurdles, you have to learn to keep your form together and stay confident." Broadwater is a Philadelphia native who is familiar with The Penn Relays experience. "I felt at home, this is my third year for High School, but I have been competing at Penn Relays since 5th Grade." Her goals for the rest of the season are to "win states, and try to win nationals."

Gina Procaccio

Coach - Villanova
 CW DMR Champions Villanova Coach Gina Procaccio: "You never get tired of winning." Villanova has won this event for the past four years and Coach Gina Procaccio has been there for them all. "Honestly you never get tired of winning," she says, "This means a lot to us, obviously losing Emily Lapari was huge and I'm really happy for these girls, especially for Stephanie her first shot at anchor she came through like a champ." "It was definitely an awesome four person victory, I'm excited for them and really proud of them. This is our turf and they ran like true Villanovans."

Stephanie Schappert

Anchor - Villanova
 CW DMR
 "I'm pretty confident in my kick but it was hard to judge the pace I was going because it was a little windy. I was telling myself to stare at her back and with 200 left, all you have." "I have so much faith in these girls, they're some of my best friends, we train together everyday and seeing Angel open up that huge lead and seeing Michaela and Siofra fight to hold it up, I was like, you're gonna have to kill me before I give up this win."

Michaela Wilkins

2nd Leg - Villanova
 CW DMR
 "We all have the same goal, we all went out there and got it done like the previous years. No matter who we put on it we always know the goal is to go out and get it done."

Angel Piccirillo

1st Leg - Villanova
 CW DMR
 "We knew there were a lot of good teams in this race and we were gonna need a little help on the end of the back end relay so I wanted to do whatever I could do to help out. I knew I was first and they were gonna have a lot of work to do the last three legs. I just wanted to stay relaxed as I could for the first half of the race and then just bring it home hard."

Siofra Cleirigh Buttner

3rd Leg - Villanova
 CW DMR
 "I'm from Ireland so obviously we don't go over here, but I knew about the big legacy and the boots that need to be filled to continue with this big event." "I had a few nerves but I think it was in a good way. I was excited to start my journey here."

Cyre Virgo

Athlete - Fleetwood, PA

Cyre Virgo of Fleetwood, PA is the HSG High Jump Champion for the second time.

After winning as a sophomore, Cyre Virgo says her experience helped her to win today. "I think the atmosphere kind of helped," she said. "I'm used to being at big meets so it wasn't too big of a surprise." "Just to come out and do a PR for this season it's an amazing experience and feeling." Competing at The Penn Relays and winning was a special experience for Virgo, "It makes me speechless, it's amazing to come out and go against all these girls and to come out and win is an amazing feeling."
